WHAT WE DO

UNITED ACTION works to empower Newcomer women and girls in Berlin and Brandenburg, with the expertise of someone who has gone through the process of starting a new life here. That's why Fatuma Musa Afrah started United Action e.V. and has made it her mission to help newcomer women. Not only that, she is working to build an inclusive community and to create meaningful exchanges between newcomers and local women and girls.

More than 500 women from more than 12 countries have benefited from our workshops, meetups and cultural activities. Many have gone on to higher education, language courses or community work.

OUR GOALS

Newcomer women and girls are the center of United Action's activities. It is important to say that we don't work for them, we work with them.

We want to motivate newcomer women to use their strengths, resources and talents ("empowerment") and inform them about their rights.

We also offer education programs to increase their opportunities in the German society.

It is also our goal to make people become aware of cultural differences and to share values such as tolerance and respect and as society, to fight together against any form of racism and sexism.

“CHANGES ARE POSSIBLE, BUT WE NEED TO BE PATIENCE AND TO WORK TOGETHER”.

FATUMA'S STORY

Fatuma was born in Somalia and grew up in Kenya after fleeing the civil war. There, she studied Social Work and Development and worked for international aid organizations. When she arrived in Germany four years ago, she lived in a refugee camp that was isolated and depressing. After successfully setting herself up in Berlin, she was determined to help other newcomer women and girls do the same and support the local women and girls as well. She believes in Unity for all.
